

2023-2024 ASSOCIATE PASTOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE SLATE

The following individuals are slated to serve on the Associate Pastor Nominating Committee to call Shallowford's new Associate Pastor for Youth & Mission.

BRAD BRYANT is a lifelong learner; serial youth advocate; family host, Shallowford Youth senior high girls; Confirmand sponsor; chair, Shallowford Presbyterian School; Elder; Sunday School teacher; community member, Lakeside High School Principal's Advisory Council. Brad is married to his college sweetheart, Kay Bryant, and shares that his superpower is serving on search committees.

ALICIA BUDD and her husband, Gary, and two children, Norah (7th grade), Eli (5th grade) joined Shallowford shortly after moving back to Atlanta in 2016. Since joining, Alicia's served on the Transition Team for John Semmes and the COVID-19 Task Force. Alicia is part of an amazing small group, and helps out with the youth and children's activities when she can. Outside of Shallowford, Alicia spends time with family, getting outdoors, and working as an epidemiologist at CDC.

JOSHUA BUSHART (YOUTH) is a Junior at Lakeside High school and has been active in Shallowford's Music Ministry since he was little. Joshua sang in the Trinity and Westminster Choirs, and now sings in the Chapel Choir. He's participated in countless Shallowford trips and events including Chapel Choir Tour, annual mission trips, and Montreat. Joshua was recently chosen to be a member of the Montreat Music & Worship Conference Planning Team for 2025.

ELIZABETH HANKLA (YOUTH) is a sophomore at The Westminster Schools in Atlanta. She has been attending Shallowford since 2013 and has particularly enjoyed participating in Youth Sunday school and youth small groups. Elizabeth was a member of the 2022 confirmation class, where she shared her individual faith statement in front of the congregation. She became an official member on April 24, 2022.

LIZZIE JURY and her husband, Doug, joined Shallowford over 10 years ago. Lizzie currently serves on session in the 2023 class of new elders. She is a member of the Mission Committee and helps out with youth and choir on occasion as her kids, Thomas and Mary, participate. Lizzie is a research librarian, reads a lot, and is currently trying to improve her tennis game.

CODY MOSHER and wife, Macy, joined Shallowford virtually in 2020 and have been so thankful for the incredible connections we have made here. Cody has served as a youth group leader for the last three years. She looks forward to the opportunity to further strengthen the youth program here at Shallowford.

STEVE POELZER has been a member of Shallowford since 2017. He is married to Sorrell and together they have two boys, Lawson & Hudson, who live for Lemonade Brigade and cookies after Sunday worship. Steve works as an insurance underwriter, but his real passion is serving as a middle school boys' small group leader.
